Celebration Awards

2H Rory for doing his best in his special missions over the last two weeks and concentrating super hard to get great results.

Matilda B for trying so hard in her Maths and getting herself unstuck to make super progress. Well done.

2J William for always taking the time to do his best and for producing some excellent topic writing that is so engaging for his readers.

Emilia for her excellent effort in all her lessons. She listens to and acts on all feedback to do her best.

3D Milena ... for challenging herself and showing determination to improve her learning.

Fred - for an increasingly mature attitude in class especially in showing greater perseverance when working independently..

4M Geol - for a very creative and informative PowerPoint presentation of Hawaii

Niko - for a brilliantly built volcano! Well done - the wet paint was a great touch!

5F Jayden for being a kind friend.

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory – The Musical We have tickets still available so if any parent from Year 2 to 5 would like to buy a ticket to join their child, please do so on WisePay by Monday 6th June £41.00

Harry Potter Day

On Friday after half term the whole school will become Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. Children will be sorted into Houses; they will visit the Owls and perhaps play in the Forbidden Forest. For this day, children can dress up as Harry Potter characters or, if they are younger, as witches or wizards. They should be receiving letters by owlpost inviting them very soon.

A creative revolution

All the children looked fabulous dressed up for Jubilee Day. They enjoyed a picnic lunch and singing in the Hall as well as activities in the classroom. Special thanks to Claudia McInally for all her event organising and decorating as well as Louise Smillie-Seldon for her feature balloons.
