Celebration Awards

2J William for challenging himself in every lesson; led by his love of learning and positive attitude.

Anolini for her excellent and positive attitude towards her work and for responding to feedback to extend her learning.

2H Ruby for working carefully on her art from around the world and creating some lovely pieces.

Nimrod for persevering with his art this week to create some lovely work on waves and camouflage.

4M Isaac - for working really hard this half-term. Well done, Isaac!

Imogen C - for taking that extra-special care with her work. Your handwriting looks amazing!

4HD:Henry is a star in 4HD this week for being a kind, caring, thoughtful and generous friend to his classmates. Well done Henry for displaying the values we love to see in 4HD!

Tabitha is a star this week for continuing to work hard, producing wonderful topic work and always being the best she can be. Well done Tabitha!

5M -Noah, Lexi and Sana - For excellent performances of poems they had written

6S Oliver K for being a kind and supportive friend and an improved attitude to learning and homework.

6W Gabby C we have noticed how hard you have been working on your 'Alma' story-writing. A huge well done from us. Keep going.

6A Eva L for excellent efforts in our rehearsals.

SCHOOL FETE

Thank you to everyone who attended the School Fete and Football tournament; what a glorious afternoon. It was lovely to see so many of you enjoying the event. A very big thank you to Kate Hinings and the PTFA ladies, the brilliant referees (Mr Cleverly, Mr Bingham, Mr Burrell and especially Mr Brackenbury for organising the football tournament!) and the parent volunteers. We could not run these events without your support. I am sure between us all a lot of money has been raised to support the children's education.
