Celebration Assembly

1L: Keira for really trying hard to read tricky new words in phonics.

1PL: Wilfie for being a great role model and acting just like NED.

2J: Tommy for always doing the best he can whether as a friend or a learner. Tommy, you are an excellent role model.

Sibylle for always listening to feedback so that she knows how to make her work even better, and learns how to deepen her understanding.

2H: Ava for taking advice on board to learn her assembly line and speak clearly.

Rishan for acting on feedback to practise and say his part so well in our assembly.

3J: Zuzanna and Isla both created fantastic pieces of Inuit artwork this week, sketching a brilliant owl. Well done girls!

3B: Sofia Craft: For excellent creativity when problem solving in maths

Emilia: For some spectacular poetry writing about an animal encounter

4HD: Violette is an absolute star this week for her wonderful home learning project that she completed during half term. - an exploding paper mache volcano! Well done Violette.

Darcey and Calvin are also stars this week for their wonderful performative reading of their journey to school - great work!

4M: Tilda and Mateusz - for being such excellent class representatives in their Junior Chaplaincy role. I want to thank you both for your time and your attention to detail. Well done!

Bibiana - for you very carefully and beautifully presented Topic work. It has been a pleasure to look through your book. Thank you for your efforts!

5W: Lucy-kind considerate and a friend to all.

5F : Jacob- for being a hard worker.

Zofia – for always asking for help when needed.

6W: Jess for excellent work and showing lovely manners to everyone.

6M: Hannah for supporting her netball team, even though she wasn't playing. She was very helpful to her team.

WEDDING

Huge congratulations to the former Miss John (now known as Mrs Mather) who was married at St John the Baptist Cathedral during half term. It was lovely that children from both her class and her husband's school sang at the ceremony. This was the fun picture!!

PARKING

A polite request not to park in the car park of the church opposite the school. We have had a number of complaints.

Thank you.
